Proceedings: (IN CHAMBERS) Order Re: Plaintiffs' Motion to Dismiss FTCA Claims without Prejudice (DE 70)

On March 16, 2015, James Davis Bennett and Pamela Bennett (“Plaintiffs”) filed a Complaint against the United States of America (“the Government”) seeking damages under the Federal Tort Claims Act (“FTCA”).

Before filing their FTCA claim, Plaintiffs also filed a Bivens claim premised on the same facts. On September 22, 2015, this Court granted summary judgment on the Bivens claim in favor of Defendants. Plaintiffs timely appealed to the Ninth Circuit. On November 12, 2015, this Court denied Plaintiff’s motion to stay the FTCA claim pending the Ninth Circuit’s decision on the Bivens claim.

Presently before the Court is Plaintiffs’ motion to dismiss without prejudice all of their claims. “[A]n action may be dismissed [without prejudice] at the plaintiff’s request only by court order, on terms that the court considers proper.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(a)(2). “A Rule 41(a)(2) motion is addressed to the sound discretion of the district court.” Sams v. Beech Aircraft Corp., 625 F.2d 273, 277 (9th Cir. 1980). “In ruling on a motion for voluntary dismissal, the District Court must consider whether the defendant will suffer some plain legal prejudice as a result of the dismissal.” Hamilton v. Firestone Tire & Rubber Co., 679 F.2d 143, 145 (9th Cir. 1982).

Here, Plaintiffs wish to dismiss their claims without prejudice to avoid the FTCA judgment bar, which, if triggered, will moot their Bivens claim currently on appeal. The point of the judgment bar, however, is to insulate the government and its employees from successive lawsuits based on the same facts. If the Court were to grant Plaintiffs’ request, it would be subjecting the Government to the very legal prejudice that the FTCA judgment bar was designed to prevent. Accordingly, the Court DENIES Plaintiffs' request to dismiss their case without prejudice.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
